WHEREAS, We are a nation of people who thrive on helping others as well as ourselves to a better life; and,

WHEREAS, This nation was founded upon a spirit of voluntarism and today one out of every five Americans is making a gift of time and talent to some kind of volunteer service—helping others or working for a cause—and this great grass roots movement is growing; and,

WHEREAS, Anyone, old or young, rich or poor, can be a volunteer and reap the rich rewards that come from doing for others as well as from improving one's own skills and widening one's horizons; and,

WHEREAS, Our communities and our country will benefit as more and more of us bestow the priceless gift that comes only when people give of themselves:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 20 through April 26, 1975, as in South Dakota, and I urge that all citizens of our State observe this week by seeking out some area in their community where they can, by devoting a few hours each week and more, if possible, give aid to some needy individual or cause.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 6th day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five

Richard F. Kneip
